Free and open to the public

The top 20 qualifying high school students from the DMV area engage in two rounds of performance poetry competition for a chance to join the 2014 DC Youth Slam Team and represent the District at regional and national poetry slam festivals. A program of Split This Rock, the DC Youth Slam Team is a yearlong commitment to poetry, creative writing, and performance, with coaching and mentoring from adult teaching artists. Email SLAM@SplitThisRock.org to get involved or for more information. This slam is not open. The poets have been preselected through previous preliminary slams.
